Ninth Week of School

October 15, 2015

Trunk or Treat

Coming October 25th, SPJ will be hosting a “Trunk or Treat” event from 2:00-4:00! A flyer is attached (and included in the Thursday folder) for interested families; it is basically an opportunity for people to decorate the trunks of their cars for display, offering treats to the kids at each stop. The kids will have a costume parade, food donations will be accepted, and a festive atmosphere will lead us into fall! More specific details in next week’s Thursday folder.

SCRIP

Don't forget to place your Scrip orders on the 15th and the 30th every month. You can sign up for an online account or request a form from the office. Next order goes in on Thursday of next week. If you need any help, call or email Michelle DuPlain: 330-704-8909 or michelleduplain@gmail.com

By the way... Turkey Bingo will be held on Friday, Nov. 20th 7:00-9:00 – save the date! See included flyer.

Car Seat Inspection

The Jackson Township Safety Center is offering a free car seat inspection on October 31st from 11:00-1:30. The event is being held at 7383 Fulton Dr. NW in Massillon, OH 44646

SPJ Dedication & Alumni Event

On Oct. 11, more than 80 people gathered at SPJ to dedicate our new computer lab to retired SPJ teacher Sandra Folland, and the entire lower level of the church to retired SPJ teacher Nancy Judge. The day began with Mass, followed by the dedication (led by Fr. McCaffrey), and culminating in a festive gathering in the social hall. Special thanks to Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Morber for setting up the event. Special thanks go out to the Yingling, Wantz, Grimm, McGrath, Salupo, and Connelly families for dedicating their time, talent, and treasure to make the event one to remember!

Scholastic Book Fair – Oct 18-20

The Scholastic Book Fair will kick off during the pancake breakfast on Oct 18.

This year’s theme is “Monster Book Fair.”

Attached with the e-mail version of this newsletter is a flyer for the event and a pre-order form for the new Diary of a Wimpy Kid book (out in Nov.).

First Step for Change

In front of the school office, you will find a large plastic baby bottle; it is to collect change and donations for the First Steps for Change Program. If you have any spare change you'd like to donate, it pays for food, formula, diapers, and clothing to needy families with babies. The church is also participating in this program

SPJ Sports

The 7/8 Western Warriors (featuring SPJ students) defeated St. Mike's last week 38-0, to move their record to 5-1. Their final game is on the 25th against Eastern. The 5/6 Western team finished their season with an impressive 4-3 record. The 7/8 SPJ volleyball have a huge game next week on Tuesday against St. Paul at St. Paul in North Canton –good luck, SPJ athletes! Eighth grade Jay Aaron's Northwest football team just finished their season, an undefeated one, at 8-0! Way to go!

UPCOMING SPORTS CAMPS

Basketball will begin within the next two weeks; the 5/6th girls will begin around Oct. 24; the 3/4th girls will begin between Oct 24 and Oct 31. The 6-8 boys will begin practice on or around Oct 31. The 3-5 boys will begin once a coach has been secured (if interested in coaching contact RJ Peters at ronaldpeter63@yahoo.com. Basketball for grades K-2 will unfortunately not be offered through SPJ. More specific info to come.
